This message is confirmation that your request has been received by the Permissions Department for the journal Science and its online publications. All requests are processed in order of receipt.

Turnaround time is approximately 25 days depending upon the volume of requests we have received. If you have an urgent permissions need, many requests can be processed online, automatically, via Rightslink, by clicking on the "Rights and Permissions" link on the left side of our online articles.

If Rightslink has referred you to us directly, your request may require special attention. To ensure your request is processed in a timely fashion, please follow the instructions on the Reprints and Permissions page at <http://www.sciencemag.org/site/about/permissions.xhtml> and send all listed details to us at permissions@aaas.org.

Thank you.
